With more pressure on lawyers to do their own advocacy in family courts, this course will equip you with essential tips in being able to conducting advocacy in aspects of family law. There will be a particular focus on children care cases, ranging from private children law cases, emergency applications, interim hearings, contested hearings, and case management hearings. Safda will also cover advocacy in personal protection injunction cases and basic financial remedy cases.

This course is designed to support professionals working with parents, children, extended family members, and local authorities. The session will be valuable for Solicitors, Barristers, Chartered Legal Executives, Local Authority lawyers, trainees, paralegals, and support staff involved in this area of practice.

You will learn:

1. An understanding of the key issues surrounding Family Advocacy
2. An understanding of key principles and court etiquette
3. An understanding of the key issues surrounding conducting family advocacy

The topics covered will include, amongst others, the following:

- Understand good advocacy skills
- Court set up
- Become more confident, despite a 'difficult' opponent
- Effective preparation
- Calling Evidence
- Making good opening and closing speeches/submissions
- Carry out effective examination-in-chief and cross-examination
- Emergency Hearings
