A knowledge of planning law and its enforcement is essential for conveyancers and this is an area which is undergoing major changes. The course aims to look at some of the issues including recent changes.

Topics covered include:

- Planning enforcement periods
- Planning breaches and the proceeds of crime
- Listed buildings
- Changes to use classes and permitted development
- Planning conditions
- Community Infrastructure Levy, S.106 Agreements and changes in England

Speaker Profile:

This webinar will be presented by Richard Snape. Richard has been the Head of Professional Support at Davitt Jones Bould since 2002. He speaks at numerous courses for Law Societies all over the country, various public courses, in-house seminars within solicitors firms and also talked extensively to local authorities and central government bodies. His areas of specialism include both commercial and residential property, in particular in relation to local government law, conveyancing issues, development land, commercial property and incumbrances in relation to land.
